INTRODUCTION

SCWDC is a large Club with substantial financial dealings. Hundreds of people, in a volunteer capacity, are responsible for the smooth operation of all aspects of Club business. Also, thousands of members participate in the various activities. Consequently, it has become necessary to develop a framework for the conduct of Club business. At present there are three documented levels of "rules" which govern the conduct of Club business: Bylaws, Rules of Procedure, and Procedural Policies.

The Bylaws provide the most general rules for the Club. They contain the purpose of the Club, the structure of the governing body, and officers. These are contained in Chapter 1 of this Policy Manual.

The Rules of Procedure include more specific details in regarding the implementation of the Bylaws; for example, the authority and responsibility of the officers, Board and Standing Committees. These are contained in Chapter 2.

In 1976, it became apparent that the workings of the Club were sufficiently complex that a third level of "rules" needed to be documented in order to have a smooth operation and uniform conduct of business. In March 1977, a Club Policy Manual was approved by the Board to define procedural policy for the conduct of Club business. In 1979, the membership voted to establish a standing Policy Committee, which is charged with maintaining the Club's procedural policies in a form readily usable by the membership. The day-to-day operations of the Club are contained in Chapter 3. Chapter 4 covers the authority and responsibility of Club members: officers, committee chairpersons, activity leaders, and even activity participants.

Since its approval in 1977, the Policy Manual has gone through a continuous process of updating and reformatting as policies have been enacted or altered, changes to the Bylaws and Rules of Procedure have been approved, and better ways to organize the content have been devised.

In 1993, the Board and the Policy Committee decided to make the Policy Manual more readable, particularly Chapter 3, which is the portion most frequently referred to. This involved mostly a reorganization of the presentation of the policies. There were relatively few changes in the wording of any of the policies themselves.

From early 1995 through 1996, the Policy Committee again attempted a revision and overhaul of Chapter 3. The new Chapter 3 was intended to be easier to read and well as more logically organized. While the substance of most of the policies remained the same, many others were significantly changed, in content as well as style.

Prior versions had a numbering system that related the provisions between Chapters 3 and 4. This numbering system has been eliminated for Chapters 3 (in 1997) and 4 (in 2000), providing a more enjoyable simplicity. In a bow to the principle of equality, gender references were neutered in December 2000.

The Policy Manual is being maintained in both electronic and paper versions; and can be viewed on the Club website and in the Club office.

I.D.4. Program Chairpersons are encouraged to maintain a manual which shall contain, among other things, guidance for their leaders. They are also urged to provide personal guidance.

I.D.5. Program Chairpersons or their designees are responsible for reviewing the financial statements for activities under their jurisdiction.

I.D.6. All individuals who are to be selected to hold positions in the Club must be members in good standing at the time of appointment and during the period of time in which they serve.

I.D.7. Any Club member who submits a written application to hold a position in the Club shall be seriously considered for that position. The applicant shall be notified of the disposition of the application.

I.D.8. The selection of individuals for positions of responsibility shall be primarily based on the person's qualifications and an assessment of their ability to successfully assume the responsibilities of the position.

I.D.9. Individuals with proper qualifications shall be given full opportunity to assume positions of higher responsibility.

9. Prohibition of Conflicts of Interest

I.D.9.a. The President, Directors, Program Chairpersons, Program Sub-chairpersons, Treasurer, activity leaders, or anyone acting on behalf of the Club, may not take any action that might result in, or give the appearance of, using their Club position for private gain, giving preferential treatment to any person or company, or allowing private interests or activities to impact on Club duties.

I.D.9.b. Officers or agents acting on behalf of the Club cannot participate personally and substantially in a matter in which they have a financial interest.

I.D.9.c. Deviation from this policy will require the prior written approval of the Board.

I.D.10.a. Anyone who makes decisions to commit the Club to major financial obligations, including Program Chairpersons, Program Sub-chairpersons, the President, the Treasurer, or Directors may only accept gratuities on behalf of the Club, and then only conditional upon Board approval. Such gratuities cannot be accepted if they involve any obligations which are not in the best interests of the Club. The Board will select the individual(s) to receive these gratuities.

I.D.10.b. Leaders should make all reasonable efforts to convert any fringe benefits offered to them into lower cost or increased benefits to activity participants. Acceptance of anything which cannot be so converted is permissible, provided that it is reported to the Program Chairperson.

I.D.10.c. No one may solicit prizes on behalf of the Club without prior consent of the BOD.

- II.B.3. All major Club commitments will be made through a formal contract or a letter of agreement.
- II.B.4. Whenever practical, bids for procurement will be solicited from a number of sources.
- II.B.5. Program Chairpersons, with the approval of the Board of Directors, may authorize down payments for trips or activities up to eighteen months in advance of the trip or activity.

6. Evaluation of Ski Trip Bids

- II.B.6.a. A committee of three or more members will evaluate bids and select suppliers in the overnight ski trips programs.
- II.B.6.b. At a minimum, bids will be evaluated considering (1) past performance of the potential supplier; (2) the cost and quality of the goods and services relative to all other sources; (3) the extent of Club liability, and, if applicable, the specific liability associated with cancellation; and (4) the willingness of the supplier to enter into a formal agreement.

7. Facilities or Supplies from Outside Sources.

- II.B.7. a. Supplies and services should not be purchased or contracted from an outside source if they are available from the Club.
- II.B.7.b. Club volunteers should not use the facilities and services of other organizations without reimbursing those organizations.

8. Club Facilities and Equipment

- II.B.12. No Club funds may be spent for post-trip parties.
- II.B.13. Except as specifically approved by the Board, no special parties may be held for activity helpers at Club expense.

C. Budgetary Matters

- II.C.1 The budget, once adopted by the Board, shall be the fiscal and program guide for the President, the Treasurer, Program Chairpersons and the various committee members and leaders. Club funds may not be spent unless they are part of an approved budget, or a Board approved exception. The President may approve unbudgeted emergency expenditures up to $1,000 annually.
- II.C.2. Pricing: For all activities with paid admission, the price shall be a whole dollar amount. (10/12)
- II.C.3. A Club assessment fee, in an amount to be determined by the Board, is to be added to the cost of attending Club activities. The current assessment schedule can be found in Appendix 1 of this Manual.
- II.C.4. The number of activity leaders assigned to an activity, and whether any leader shall pay all or part of the admission price shall be determined by the appropriate Program Chairperson with the approval of the Board.
- II.C.5. Guest and cancellation fees charged to participants will be based on actual member admission prices rather than budgeted admission prices.

D. Reimbursement Procedures

- II.D.1. Club officers shall not sign a check payable to themselves, a family member, or a person or entity with which there is a financial relationship.
- II.D.2. All checks require signatures from one of the following officers: President, Vice President, Treasurer, or BOD-designated BOD member. The voucher must be approved by a different signer than the check's signer, and the voucher must be approved before the check is signed. (12/12)
3. Processing of Vouchers (Green Forms):
- II.D.3.a. Requests for payment of Club funds must be submitted and then approved by a different individual. Requests initiated by Leaders or Program Sub-Chairpersons shall be approved by the cognizant Program Chairperson. Requests initiated by a Program Chairperson shall be approved by the President, Vice President or Treasurer.

- II.D.3.b. A receipt is required for each item for which reimbursement is claimed. That receipt shall be attached to the green voucher or final financial statement (yellow form). If a receipt is unavailable (such as for cash tips), the expenditure must otherwise be adequately explained. Requests for reimbursement of charges incurred against a member's credit card must include a copy of an invoice or receipt from the merchant (not the credit card company) describing the products or services purchased. (7/07)
- II.D.3.c. Vouchers for refunds to participants who cancel from an activity are due within ten (10) days of the activity's completion.

E. Leader Selection for Activities Not Involving Overnight Ski Trips

- II.E.1. Leaders for activities which are not overnight in duration and have a cash flow of less than $3,000 may be selected by the Program Chairperson without further approval, provided a list of selections is submitted to the President and the Board at least one month in advance of the activity. (1/05)
- II.E.2. All leaders for activities which are overnight or longer in duration, or are budgeted for a cash flow of $3,000 or more, require approval of the Board. (1/05)
- II.E.3. Selection of a non-ski flight trip leader requires approval by the Board, and notification to ALEC prior to Board approval. No person shall lead more than one such flight trip in a fiscal year or such flight trips in consecutive years without approval by the Board. A person may lead a ski flight trip in the same fiscal year that he/she leads a non-ski flight trip. (6/97)

F. Leader Selection for Week Long and Flight Ski Trips

- II.F.1. A member who is interested in leading a week long or flight ski trip shall submit an application to the Activity Leaders Evaluation Committee (ALEC). ALEC will publish this procedure in the Club Magazine and elsewhere as appropriate. (3/08)
- II.F.2. The procedures for awarding the leadership of trips to eligible applicants are as follows:
- II.F.2.a. ALEC shall rank eligible applicants based on the ALEC Point System, which is described in the ALEC Procedures document. After leader applications from volunteers are received and compiled, ALEC shall seek Board approval of the proposed leaders. ALEC shall then obtain lists of planned trips from the ski trip committees, and send copies of those lists to the eligible applicants. It shall advise the applicants of deadline dates and other requirements for the applicants to indicate their preferences or interests in leading the various trips. (7/07)

- II.F.2.b. ALEC may adjust individual's points as determined above as appropriate to take into consideration the evaluations received from trip participants, ski program chairs and monitors. ALEC shall notify the Board and all applicants of the final methods used for ranking applicants. In addition, ALEC may disqualify an applicant based on previous participant evaluations where appropriate. (3/08)
- II.F.2.c. The respective ski program chairpersons may submit special qualifications for specific trips which are appropriate for the type of trip. For instance, cross country, an especially difficult trip, a specific theme trip, or a trip designed for younger or other specific groups of members. ALEC shall take these special qualifications into account when assigning leaders, even if it requires a variation from the ALEC Point System. (3/08)
- II.F.2.d. Should a club member have specific knowledge or ideas on a trip, he/she may submit these to the appropriate ski committee. If the committee approves the trip, and the member submitting it performs most of the work in organizing it, then this person may be selected by ALEC to lead the trip regardless of point count. All other requirements regarding eligibility to lead the trip, including having led trips before, completed financials, etc. still apply. The President, members of ALEC, the Board of Directors, and the Eastern committee (for Eastern trips) and Western/International (for Western/International trips) may not use this exception to the point system. (3/08)
- II.F.2.e. Approved applicants for all overnight trips will be placed on A and B priority lists. First time applicants will go on the B list. Thereafter, applicants will alternate between the A and B lists each year they are selected for a trip. In those rare instances where a leader on the A list agrees to lead a trip not of his/her choice, but as a favor to the club, he/she may remain on the A list. (3/08)
- II.F.3. An assigned overnight ski trip leader who does not actually lead the trip (but who has successfully led such a trip within the past two years) may be eligible to lead a ski flight trip the following year and either move to or stay on the A list under one of the following circumstances:
- Adverse weather conditions or other circumstances unrelated to the leader, led to the cancellation of the trip;
 - The Program Chairperson determines that in spite of the best efforts of the leader to sell the trip, a lack of sign-ups led to its cancellation;
 - The Program Chairperson determines that an unforeseen and unavoidable medical/family/job emergency prevented the leader from fulfilling the leader's obligations to the Club.
- (12/03)

- II.F.4 ALEC shall advise the Board of Directors and the ski trip Program Chairpersons who the eligible applicants are and their rankings. ALEC shall also inform the BOD of applicant point totals and selection methodology. Prior to the assignment of trips, the Board and the Program Chairpersons shall have an opportunity for comment. (3/08)
- II.F.5.a The A-list leaders will have first choice for the trip assignments. ALEC will assign trips to the A-list leaders in accordance with the leaders' rankings and preferences. Then from the remaining trips, ALEC will assign trips to the B list leaders. (3/08)
- II.F.5.b ALEC shall assign trips to applicants based on their rankings and their preferences. Such assignments shall be communicated to the Board, the relevant Program Chairpersons, and the prospective leaders, all prior to the publication of the leader selections to the membership. (3/08)
- II.F.6. A person shall not be a leader for more than one overnight ski trip during any fiscal year without obtaining BOD approval.
- II.F.7. In order to qualify to lead a ski flight or weeklong trip, the applicant must have been a member of SCWDC for at least two full years at the time of selection, previously led an overnight ski or non-ski trip within the last three years, and must have completed the financial statement and other follow up reporting for such activity. Applicants to lead ski flight trips must have participated in a Club ski flight trip within the last five years. (3/98)
- II.F.8 After all eligible leaders who have applied for trips have been assigned trips, if there are trips remaining, ALEC will attempt to find leaders from among active club members who did not apply. (3/08)
- II.F.9 ALEC will attempt to keep all eligible applicants who did not receive trips on a reserve list. Should a vacancy develop after leaders have been assigned, due for instance to an assigned leader not being able to lead a trip, or a trip expanding and requiring an additional leader, ALEC will attempt to assign a leader from the reserve list in accordance with the applicant rankings and preferences. Due to magazine deadlines and difficulty in reaching some applicants, ALEC may bypass applicants that cannot be located. (3/08)

G. Leader Selection for Non-Flight Overnight Ski trips of Less Than a Week

- II.G.1. A member who is interested in leading a non-flight trip of less than one week in duration shall submit their intentions to ALEC. The cutoff date for expressing interest will be based on requirements for publishing the trips and leaders in the club magazine. ALEC will ask the member to give a short summary of their previous club participation, especially leadership roles. ALEC will then compile a list of these leaders and determine their eligibility from the requirements below. ALEC will submit a list of these applicants to the BOD for approval. (3/08)
- II.G.2. ALEC shall obtain lists of planned trips from the ski committees as well as any special leadership needs, and shall send copies of the lists to the eligible applicants. It shall advise the applicants of deadline dates and other requirements for the applicants to indicate their preferences or interests in leading the various trips. (3/08)
- II.G.3. ALEC will work with the Program Chairperson in attempting to assign leaders based on the applicants' previous interests and efforts with the club and their abilities. (3/08)
- II.G.4. A person shall not be a leader for more than one overnight ski trip during any fiscal year without obtaining BOD approval.
- II.G.5. In order to lead an overnight ski car-pool, bus or train trip (i.e., non-flight ski trip), the applicant must have been a member of SCWDC for at least one full year at the time of selection. Within the previous 3 years, the applicant should have successfully led an activity, and completed the financial statement and other follow up reporting for the activity. Applicants to lead overnight ski trips must have participated in a Club overnight ski trip within the last five years.

- II.H.5. Non-Club activities shall not be promoted in the Magazine, via Email lists, or similar media, except for clearly marked paid advertisements. Non-Club activities may be promoted on a Club Message Board by Club members only; and only if they are non-commercial, non-profit, and not detrimental to the Club's interests. Any exceptions require BOD approval. (7/05)
- II.H.6. Paid advertising shall not be permitted if it discourages Club membership, competes with a Club activity, or is contrary to the goals, purposes, or policies of the Club.
- II.H.7. The Magazine and Website shall be available to all members, space permitting, as a means of expressing their opinions as to Club related matters.
- II.H.8. Articles stating Board policy shall be submitted by the President, and be printed unedited. (10/00)
- II.H.9 Privacy Policy
- SCWDC values the privacy of its members, and protects member information. The Club does not sell, lease, license, or share any member information with other organizations or businesses.
- Club members only may access the membership directory, which displays limited information about other members through the Club's website access, which requires a password. The Club allows members to opt to not be listed in the membership directory.
- Members are invited to review the privacy policy of the website provider.

(8/18)

(11/13)

K. Grievances

- II.K.1. The procedure for filing a grievance with the Club is to write a letter or email to the President, who will resolve it. The person may appeal the President's decision to the Board and if he or she desires, may personally present his or her case to the Board. (2/05)

III. OPERATION OF ACTIVITIES

A. General

- III.A.1. The conduct of all Club activities shall conform to the fiscal and program guidance of the President and the Board of Directors.
- III.A.2. All new activities, and significant changes in activities (whether in cost, date, location, or otherwise) previously approved by the Board, must generally be approved by the Board. An activity cost increase of at least 15%, provided it is at least $3, is considered significant. When a Program Chairperson wishes to cancel or downgrade an activity in a time critical situation, it is sufficient to notify the President, if feasible. (6/98)
- III.A.3. A Leader shall be involved with the planning of the activity to the fullest extent possible.

- III.B.2. Only items approved by the Board shall be promoted, advertised, or sold at Club activities.
- III.B.3. Promotional material must be approved by the Board prior to being distributed at a Club function, with the following exceptions:
- Material promoting Club functions; and (10/17)

C. Processing Activity Participants: Signing Up for the Activity

- III.C.1. A person shall not be permitted to participate in an activity unless he/she has submitted an application and has tendered full payment. A space may not be reserved for a person who has not submitted such an application, and who has failed to make timely payments.
- III.C.2. Activity application forms shall include the following statement:
“Application to this event constitutes acceptance of SCWDC policies and terms associated with this event.” (2/05)
- III.C.3. Deposit and payment schedules, which are determined by the Board, can be found in Appendix 1 of this Manual.

- III.C.4. For activities with price up to $1200, participants must pay the total in a single payment, for all methods of payment. For activities over $1200, participants paying by credit card or check can make a deposit plus at most one single additional payment for the balance. (If this is changed, Appendix 1 may also need to be changed) (2/23)
- III.C.5. For activities involving air travel, the relevant Program Chairperson may modify the schedule of participant payments to accommodate the payment schedules set by the airlines, lodges, travel agents or other suppliers.
- III.C.6. If a person has submitted a complete application for membership, including payment, he/she shall be considered to be a member unless and until that application is rejected or membership revoked.
- III.C.7. To participate in an activity as a member, the participant must be a member at the time of the activity, regardless of whether the participant was a member at the time of the application.
- III.C.8. The use of the services or facilities of a Club activity is generally restricted to activity participants. The leader may admit others so long as the enjoyment of the activity participants is respected. (6/98)
- III.C.9.a. SCWDC or Blue Ridge Ski Council membership is required for any person to participate in any activity for which the price is at least $1000. (6/17)
- III.C.9.b. For activities that do not require SCWDC membership, a member may be able to sign up for an activity with a guest. The member should identify the guest as either a member or non-member, and see that payment for the guest is the appropriate activity price based on membership status. (6/17)
- III.C.10. A leader should attempt to balance the number of males and females on an activity, but only to the point where it would not risk the activity's financial status. (6/98)
- III.C.11. The Treasurer shall have the responsibility and authority to administer the Treasurer's List. The BOD shall have the authority to alter the Treasurer's List.
The Treasurer's List consists of:
Part A - Individuals who have paid the Club with bad checks habitually, or have been non-cooperative in resolving problems with bad checks. The Club does not accept checks from these individuals.

Part B - Individuals who have been egregiously either at fault or non-cooperative in resolving problems in owing the Club money or misappropriating Club money or property. The Club doesn't allow these individuals to participate in activities.

Part C - (Treasurer's Business List) Businesses that have been very problematic in terms of owing the Club money or fleecing the Club. The Club doesn't do business with them. (7/15)

- III.C.13. For any activity involving a participant admission cost of at least $75, or overnight duration, or any ski trip, an applicant will be notified via writing or email in a timely manner (not to exceed 14 days) of the receipt of the deposit and the applicant's status on the activity, and shall be reminded of the applicable cancellation policy. (2/05)
- III.C.14. Leaders of overnight activities should deposit checks with the Ski Club within seven days of receipt of the checks, except for checks for wait-listed persons. - III.C.15. All activity applicants who are not members of the Club will be placed on the waiting list until 21 days prior to the activity, except for flight trips, where they shall be wait-listed until 45 days prior to departure.

Children on Activities

- III.C.16. The Club encourages programs to offer family friendly activities as appropriate. The Program Chairperson shall indicate whether an activity is to be considered family friendly when submitting the activity's schedule/budget to the BOD for approval. (7/07)
- III.C.17. All participants under the age of eighteen must be accompanied by an adult chaperon, who is responsible for the child's actions. All chaperons must ensure that their children conduct themselves in accordance with the SCWDC Personal Conduct Policy (stated elsewhere in this manual). The decision as to whether an activity leader can bring a child would be made by the Program Chairperson. Care should be taken that a situation with a leader acting as chaperon does not interfere with the leader's ability to provide good leadership for the activity. (7/07)

- III.C.18. For an activity that is not designated as “family friendly”, it is still possible for children to be allowed to participate. That decision would be made by the Program Chairperson in consultation with the activity leader and on a case-by-case basis depending on the nature of the activity and other relevant factors.

Roommates

- III.C.19 When an overnight trip leader becomes aware that there is a possibly awkward roommate situation regarding e.g. a gender issue or snoring, the leader should confer in a respectful way with the potential roommates to see if a satisfactory arrangement can be worked out. If there is still an issue, the leader should consult with the Program Chairperson for possible remedies, such as a single supplement.
(10/16)

Free Admission Policies

- III.C.20. The Past Presidents, current President, Board members, Administrative Manager, Financial Manager, Treasurer, Program and Committee Chairpersons, (or a committee member designated by the Program Chairperson), and Secretary may participate in various functions at no charge. Present free admission activities include those costing $25 or less, not designated as fund raisers, and not requiring pre-purchase of a ticket. Tennis parties are excluded (see paragraph below). A Program Chairperson may exempt an activity from this free admission policy. In all cases, attendees wishing free admission under this policy must make an advance reservation with the activity leader, and are encouraged to wear their name tags.

For tennis parties, free admission or reduced price is allowed only by virtue of contributions to the Tennis Program. The Tennis Program Chairperson is authorized to decide who is eligible. The current President and BOD members are eligible for free admission to the social part of the tennis party, but not to the tennis itself. (6/15)

- III.C.21. The President may invite special visitors to participate, at no charge, in activities costing $25 or less, providing space is available and an advance reservation is made with the activity leader. This policy does not apply to activities for which the Club has purchased tickets in advance. (2/10)

D. Cancellation Fees and Policies

III.D.1. After the published deadline for unrecoverable expenses, a person who cancels from a Club activity is responsible for all unrecoverable expenses plus the cancellation fee. A person who cancels can be replaced only if an activity is full and after full payment is received from a replacement. Persons who cancel will be replaced in order of their cancellation. Cancellations become effective when the leader receives notification. Cancellations for activities costing $200 or more must be confirmed via writing or email. Refunds will not be issued until written cancellation is received. A telephone call can be considered notification as long as it is followed by written or email confirmation. Leaders should hold on to the notification, and print the participant's email including the email header data.
(2/05)

III.D.2. Cancellation fee

Persons who cancel from an activity (except as otherwise provided for in Club policy or explicitly exempted by the Board) shall be given a refund less a cancellation fee. The Cancellation Fee schedule, which is determined by the Board, can be found in Appendix 1 of this Manual.

III.D.3. Waiver of Cancellation Fees

Cancellation fees will be waived in the following circumstances:

- (1) The activity price increases to higher than the previously advertised price range.
- (2) The activity price increases by more than 5% over the previously advertised price.
- (3) The destination and/or dates of an activity change from those previously advertised.

III.D.4. Unrecoverable Expenses

III.D.4.a. Unrecoverable expenses are charged in addition to cancellation fees for cancellations. The Unrecoverable Expense schedule, which is determined by the Board, can be found in Appendix 1 of this Manual.

III.D.4.b The relevant Program Chairperson may accelerate the unrecoverable expense time frame schedule to accommodate cancellation liabilities imposed on the Club by airlines, lodges, travel agents, or other suppliers. However, the participants must be informed of any such acceleration.

III.D.5 Persons who are liable for unrecoverable expenses will share recovered expenses for an activity in proportion to the amount each of them has paid into the activity.

III.D.6 An applicant who does not make timely payments under the trip deposit and payment schedule (in this manual), upon notification of delinquency and nonpayment within seven days, may be deemed to be a canceller. In that event, the canceller shall be sent a refund for the amount of the deposits and payments, less the amount of any cancellation fees and unrecoverable expenses.

E. "Ground only" package fees on Flight Trips.

III.E.1 A "ground only" package price is defined as the total admission price of a SCWDC flight trip less the cost of the air fare (per person) allocated to such trip. The cost of the air fare is obtained from the trip contract with the travel agent or from a statement received from the travel agent. Participants who purchase a ground only package will be responsible for making their own flight arrangements.

III.E.2. Ground only packages will be offered only to the extent that they do not jeopardize the number of complimentary air spaces provided in the contract with the travel agent, and they do not otherwise negatively affect the budgeted price (per person) of the trip.

F. Processing Activity Participants - Refunds

III.F.1 Refunds - Where net income is substantially over budget:

Participants are eligible to be granted refunds for those activities where Actual Gross Gain, less Cancellation Fees Collected, less Guest Fees Collected, divided by Actual Number of Paying Participants exceeds Club Assessment (taken from Budget Sheet) plus Net (taken from Budget Sheet) divided by Budgeted Number of Paying Participants) by $20.00 or more. Such excess, minus $10.00 per capita, may be refunded to the participants upon approval by the Program Chairperson. These refunds shall not be made until the activity financial statement has been audited by the Accountant. (12/91) (6/02)

III.F.2.

Refunds - Flow-through

Participants may receive refunds on a flow-through basis when the cost of transportation, lodging, tickets, or fees are reduced on a per-participant basis, and it is determined that a refund is desirable and appropriate. Refunds will not be paid until either the Club receives the cost differential money from the provider or the provider guarantees the cost reduction in writing. The total of refunds paid to the participants shall not exceed the cost reduction received by the Club. Any refund requires approval by the Program Chairperson. (6/02)

III.F.3.

Surplus income derived from guest fees and cancellation fees is not available to the activity for expenditure or refund.

III.F.4

Refunds will not be issued to paid participants who both fail to attend and fail to cancel prior to the commencement of activities having a member admission price of $25 or less. (2/10)

III.F.5.

No refunds will be made for activities for which tickets have been purchased from a vendor in advance once the tickets have been either given to or mailed to the participants. Participants who wish to cancel from such activities are responsible for the disposition of their tickets. The Leader will maintain a list of interested people, which will be provided upon request to participants who cancel.

III.F.6

When the Club makes a refund for a payment that was made via credit card, the Club shall pay the refund by check when that action avoids a credit card penalty. Generally, if fewer than 60 days have elapsed since the date of payment, the transaction can be cancelled without penalty by the credit card company (the normal SCWDC cancellation policy will still apply). After 60 days, the participant will be charged the credit card company's transaction fee, in addition to the applicable cancellation fee." (3/10)

G. Guests and Liability

- III.G.1.a. All new and renewing members are required to sign the liability waiver statement on the membership application form.

Release of Liability: By joining SCWDC as a member on behalf of myself and all those joining on my membership, I hereby release SCWDC, its officers, directors, employees, event leaders and volunteers from any liability, damages, or claims arising from injury or property damage sustained by me related to any SCWDC activity or event.

(9/02)

- III.G.1.b Participants are required to sign a liability waiver statement for certain activities. The statement should refer to injury, weather, transportation, and other events beyond SCWDC control. Waiver statements for activities should be specific to the type of activity, spelling out the most important dangers. The activities referred to here would include overnight activities, activities where the Club provides transportation, and activities in which the Club (versus an outside provider) plays a strong role in leading participants' movements. The latter group would generally include ski instruction, hiking, bicycling, sailing, and river activities. (9/10)

- III.G.1.c. In the case of child participants (under 18 years of age), a parent or legal guardian should sign a waiver on behalf of the child. (9/02)

- III.G.1.d. Guests should sign waiver statements for all activities except parties, spectator events, and other relatively passive activities. (9/02)

- III.G.2. The Guest Fee schedule, which is determined by the Board, can be found in Appendix 1 of this Manual.

- III.G.3. Any guest of a bus driver for a Club trip may take part in the trip provided a mutually agreeable arrangement is reached by the Club and the bus company prior to the trip.

H. Conducting the Activity

- III.H.1. Any action which is against the law is against Club policy.
- III.H.2. All agreements or contracts shall abide by the law.
- III.H.3. The purchase of alcoholic beverages in one jurisdiction and the transportation and dispensing of them in another jurisdiction without paying the proper taxes is not condoned by the Club.
- III.H.4. Smoking Policy:
- III.H.4.a. Smoking is prohibited in all SCWDC sponsored indoor facilities and functions over which SCWDC has exclusive use and/or control and in all SCWDC lodging facilities.
- III.H.4.b. On activities involving bus transportation, smoking is not permitted on the bus. Persons setting up activities should attempt to arrange, preferably by contract, that drivers will not smoke while on board the bus. (6/98)
- III.H.5. Pet Policy:
- Pets are prohibited at Club activities except those where their presence would not cause a disruption. Pet owners must restrain their pets at all times.
- III.H.6 Personal Conduct Policy
- Members have the responsibility to conduct themselves in a manner that ensures that fellow members have a safe and enjoyable activity. To contribute to the safety and enjoyment of all event participants, SCWDC reserves the right to refuse service to any disruptive participant. The event leader or other SCWDC official may instruct a participant to leave an activity or event, should they conduct themselves in an unbecoming manner. This includes, but is not limited to, illegal actions of any kind, use of illegal drugs or contraband substances, physical assault, unwanted sexual advances, inappropriate touching, disorderly conduct that interferes with members' participation or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment, and/or offensive remarks or behavior that shows hostility or aversion toward another participant because of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, veteran status, age, disability, or other characteristic protected by law.

The leader's key for a decision to remove the disruptive participant from the activity depends on whether the disruption significantly impacts the safety or enjoyment of other participants. The activity leader, in handling the situation when the activity is at a distant location, should consider alternatives to removing the person such as a warning and/or changing arrangements.

The leader should document instances of seriously objectionable behavior using the Report of Unacceptable Behavior form provided on the Club's website.

If a participant is instructed to leave an activity due to unacceptable behavior, the participant normally would not receive a refund, but one could be granted at the discretion of the president, program chairperson, or Board of Directors. Further action including, but not limited to, SCWDC membership probation, denial of renewal, or revocation, may be taken at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

(1/19)

III.H.7. Carpool Policy

Activity leaders may not arrange car-pools, but can encourage car-pooling to activities where appropriate.

III.H.8. Consumption of Alcohol

III.H.8.a. Activity Leaders will tactfully refuse to allow the consumption of alcoholic beverages by those participants who are obviously drunk.

III.H.8.b. Activity Leaders are encouraged to arrange alternative means of transportation home for those participants who are obviously drunk at the end of an activity.

III.H.9. Participants with Disabilities Policy

A person with disabilities wishing to participate in a Club activity but in need of personal assistance cannot expect the Club to provide such services.

This person would be required to bring along a companion willing to provide continuous assistance.

(10/17)

III.H.10 Trip participants are to be provided with the most accurate and timely information practicable.

III.H.11 Club trips should depart at the scheduled time and should not be unduly delayed because of late arrivals.

- III.H.12. Any participant who is separated from the group because of injury or other reason is responsible for returning to the group prior to the scheduled departure or making his or her own arrangements for getting home. Any special arrangements made by the Leader are extraordinary, but are encouraged in the case of injury.

Release of Liability: By joining SCWDC as a member on behalf of myself and all those joining on my membership, I hereby release SCWDC, its officers, directors, employees, event leaders and volunteers from any liability, damages, or claims arising from injury or property damage sustained by me related to any SCWDC activity or event. As a member, I will abide by the bylaws and policies of SCWDC. View bylaws and policies at <https://scwdc.wildapricot.org>.

I. Required Financial Statement at Close of Activity (Yellow Forms)

- III.I.1. All activities that generate income or have cash expenditures require a completed final financial statement unless exempted by the Board. Financial statements are due within 30 days after the completion of each activity. In any case, all activity financial statements are due by May 15 of each year. Activities that are cancelled and have generated no income and no expenditure will require no final financial statement, so long as written notice to that effect is submitted to the Treasurer. (4/00)
- III.I.2. For each activity having a member admission rate of $75.00 or more, a roster listing each person who paid money into the activity, and the total amount collected from each, must be submitted with the financial statement.
- III.I.3. A copy of a receipt or other proof of expenditure is required for any item for which reimbursement is claimed. Such receipt shall be attached either to the (green) voucher or (yellow) final financial statement. If such proof is not available (such as for cash tips), then appropriate explanation must be provided.
- III.I.4. A person with a delinquent financial statement is not eligible to lead another activity until the statement is completed. A delinquent statement is one which is outstanding longer than thirty days after the completion of the activity, or sixty days for flight trips or any financial statement where an unpaid balance remains due the Club. Anyone who is 15 days or more late in submitting a financial report and has not submitted a satisfactory explanation to the Program Chairperson or the President, will be dropped two places in the final ALEC ranking for each occurrence (i.e., each activity financial). APPENDICES 2

AWARDS

SCWDC HONORARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Description:

An Honorary Life Membership to SCWDC is given by the Board of Directors to members of long standing who have consistently given of their time and efforts to the betterment of skiing and SCWDC. The award is not always given annually, and is usually given to only one person per year, if at all.

The Award.

The Award is a Special Life Membership Card, in an engraved format. The card bears the member's name, the year awarded, and the signature of the President in the year awarded. This card entitled the member to life-time privileges in SCWDC without the further payment of annual dues. The member will be sent an annual renewal mailer only for the purposes of keeping the mailing list and the Who's Who Directory current. An Honorary Life Membership has never been revoked, but it could conceivably be revoked by the Board for cause under the grievance procedures as outlined in the Policy Manual. The expenses for this award are paid from the President's General Account.

Qualifications:

There are no specific qualifications for this award, but historically the award has been given to a member in good standing who has served the club in various ways over a period of years, and has shown dedication to the sport of skiing and the goals and objectives of SCWDC. In addition, anyone who has been a Club member for 50 years is eligible. This award is given to only one individual, not a couple, and is only given once per person.

Procedure:

The award is given at the discretion of the Board, at such times as it sees fit. Nominations are solicited from current Board members at a regularly scheduled Board meeting. This award will be announced as an agenda item prior to that meeting. HONORARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP IS GRANTED ONLY BY UNANIMOUS VOTE OF THOSE BOARD MEMBERS PRESENT. THE PRESIDENT EXCLUDED. The vote may be either verbal or secret (written). The President and the Secretary jointly count and affirm the votes. More than one nominee may be considered, with each nominee being voted on separately. All members of the club, Board and officers included, are eligible for this award. Currently serving Board member or officer nominees should be asked to leave the room while the vote is taken. The name of an honoree should be kept SECRET until such time as the President or his designee informs the honoree of his/her election.

Implementation.

After selection of the recipient by the Board, further arrangements are made by the Administrative Manager. The award is historically given during the Awards Section of the Annual Meeting of the club.

APPENDIX 2.2

The Complimentary Membership is a one-year membership in the club, with all of the privileges of membership (except voting and office holding) without the payment of dues during the complimentary year. The award is for the year following the awarding of the membership. It is renewable at regular membership rates following the complimentary year, at the option of the recipient. A Complimentary Membership that is subsequently renewed as a regular membership will entitle the holder to all privileges, including office holding and voting after the renewal. The award is a regular membership card, signed by the President, and dated with the membership year following the date of the award.

Qualifications:

There are no specific qualifications for this award. In the past, this award has been given to a local TV newscaster, the President of the United States, and two tour bus drivers. The nominee does not need to be a current member of the club to receive this award, and usually has not been a current member at the time of the award.

Procedure:

This award is given at the discretion of the Board, at such times as it sees fit. Nominations are solicited from current Board members at a regularly scheduled Board meeting. This award will be announced as an agenda item prior to that meeting. COMPLIMENTARY MEMBERSHIPS ARE GRANTED BY A MAJORITY AFFIRMATIVE VOTE OF THE ENTIRE BOARD, THE PRESIDENT EXCLUDED. The President is allowed to break ties in voting for Complimentary Memberships. The vote may be verbal or secret (written). The President and the Secretary jointly count and affirm the votes. The JOAN HAUSWIRTH MEMORIAL TROPHY (first presented in 1962) is granted annually by the Board of Directors to the SCWDC member who has contributed the most to the club during current year (May - April).

The Award:

Historically, this award has been a silver Revere Bowl, engraved with the recipient's name, the club's name, the name of the award, and the date granted. The size and type of the award is determined by the Board. The expense for the award is paid out of the President's General Account.

Qualifications:

The recipient of the award must be a member in good standing in the club for the subject year. Although generally the award is granted to only one person per year, there have been exceptions when it has been granted to two. While the recipient generally has not been a current member of the Board or an officer of the club, there have been exceptions to this rule as well. A member may receive this award more than once.

Procedure:

The award is given at the discretion of the Board. Nominations are solicited from current Board members at a regularly scheduled Board meeting. This award will be announced as an agenda item prior to that meeting. The recipient must receive A MAJORITY OF THE AFFIRMATIVE VOTES OF THE ENTIRE BOARD, THE PRESIDENT EXCLUDED. The President is not permitted to break a tie in voting for the Hauswirth Trophy. IT IS STRONGLY SUGGESTED THAT THE NOMINEES FOR THE SCWDC GOLD AND SILVER CERTIFICATES BE DISCUSSED AND VOTED ON PRIOR TO DISCUSSIONS OF THIS AWARD. If a nominee is a current Board member or President or Secretary, such person should be asked to leave the room during the vote. The vote may be either verbal or secret (written). The President and Secretary (if they are not nominees) jointly count and affirm the votes. If either is a nominee, his or her place is taken by the Board member who serves as Vice-President. APPENDIX 4

SCWDC CODE OF ETHICS

The Board of Directors of the Ski Club of Washington, D.C. (“SCWDC” or the “Club”), in recognition of the Club’s substantial financial dealings and visibility within a broad community including its membership, business partners, sponsors, vendors and the general public, has adopted this Code of Ethical Conduct. This Code applies to all Directors, Officer, Program Chairs, Committee Chairs and Activity Leaders (each, a “Position of Responsibility”).

A person in a Position of Responsibility, when conducting Club-related activities, is expected to:

1. Make Club-related decisions that are consistent with the goals and interests of the Club, leading in accordance with adopted Club policies and procedures, without taking undue advantage of one’s leadership position for personal gain.
2. Promote the safety and health of the members of the Club.
3. Avoid conflicts of interest in financial and sponsorship dealings, whether real or perceived. This requires making all reasonable commercial efforts to enter into financial dealings based on the demonstrated qualifications of the vendor irrespective of personal relationships, and declining offers of gifts, gratuities or kickbacks, personal or otherwise (except for those of nominal value customarily offered by vendors and sponsors), when acting as a representative of the Club, and disclosing any such offers to the SCWDC Board of Directors immediately upon discovery.
4. Behave respectfully towards Club members, business partners, sponsors, vendors and the general public.
5. Not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability or veteran status.
6. Act within the bounds of all applicable federal, state and local laws.
7. Report violations of this Code to the Club’s Board of Directors promptly upon discovery.

APPENDIX 5

SCWDC ELECTION GUIDELINES & PROCEDURES

A. Candidates and Campaigns

1. The Club shall reproduce, at its expense, the campaign article and photo for each candidate. The Club shall distribute these to each member attending the Election Meeting.
2. Articles or notices about the election, including campaign articles, must be submitted to the Election Chairperson for approval before being submitted to the Club magazine, web site, or Ski-O-Gram newsletter.
3. Campaigning, which may commence when the Nominating Committee first announces its nominees to the general membership, is allowed at all Club activities through election night. This campaign start date applies to all candidates, regardless of whether they are nominated by the Nominating Committee. Campaign activities include the passing out of fliers, buttons, and name tags; the display of posters; and the public promotion of a candidacy, either in person or by telephone, mail, email, or other electronic means of communication.
4. Candidates may use personal mailing lists, but they may not use lists generated from the Club membership database that are not available to members at large.
5. Use of SCWDC facilities or office equipment for campaign purposes is not permitted.
6. Endorsement or promotion of candidates by members while acting in an official Club capacity (e.g., as an activity leader, assistant, or volunteer) is not permitted. This includes the wearing of buttons, name tags, or slogans that might be interpreted as promoting a candidate. This restriction applies before the activity, while conducting business associated with the activity, and during the activity.
7. Candidates shall conduct themselves in accordance with the Club's Code of Ethics. Malicious behavior, bribery, and false statements about other candidates are not permitted.
8. At the election meeting, Board candidates' speeches will last a maximum of two minutes. Presidential candidates' speeches will be a maximum of four minutes. Any candidate running for both offices simultaneously is limited to four minutes.

9. All candidates for Club office are subject to these guidelines, whether nominated by the Nominating Committee, by petition, or from the floor.
10. Each candidate is responsible for compliance with campaign guidelines on the part of those campaigning on his or her behalf.
11. If violation of these guidelines occurs, the Election Chairperson may ask the offending candidate to stop campaigning. The candidate will then only be allowed to make his or her speech at the election meeting. If a serious violation occurs, the candidate will be informed in advance by the election Chairperson that announcement of the violation may be made at the time the candidate is introduced for the speech. The Election Committee can apply an appropriate sanction. Prior to the day of the election, the candidate may appeal this action to the President. If the President is a candidate or recuses himself/herself, the appeal shall go to the Board of Directors, who shall resolve the matter expeditiously. Any appeal on the day of the election shall be presented to the assembly of members at the meeting.

B. Election Procedures

1. The Election Chairperson shall assume responsibility for all aspects of the election process. Upon nomination, candidates for Club office immediately come under the purview of the Election Chairperson, who shall ascertain that all nominees meet the requirements for nomination. All disputes, questions of procedure, etc., should be forwarded to the Election Chairperson for resolution.
2. The Election Chairperson will appoint a committee of at least two other Club members to assist the Chairperson. At the election meeting, the Election Chairperson and committee members will each wear readily visible badges or ribbons identifying them as election monitors, providing a reminder to candidates and their campaigners that the monitors' directions should be followed.
3. If the Board of Directors consists of eight members, the four candidates with the most votes will be elected to two-year terms on the Board. Ballots shall state that members may vote for no more than four candidates. If there are additional vacancies on the Board at the time of the election, the individual(s) with the next highest number of votes will be elected to fill the vacancies.

4. For the election of officers and for Bylaw proposals to the membership, votes may be cast either in person, by absentee paper ballot, or by absentee electronic voting. For both types of absentee voting, votes count only if received by the Club before the deadline set by the Elections Chairperson. All vote count information must be kept secret until the voting results are officially announced.

An absentee paper ballot may be used for voting only if it is received directly from an official SCWDC source; and it may be reproduced only for members of the same household. An absentee ballot is counted only if the voter mails it directly to or delivers it in person to the Club office. These ballots shall be counted by the Election Chairperson and at least two additional counters approved by the Board.

Electronic voting serves the same purpose as absentee paper balloting, but uses a different method. Any electronic voting system should be secure from fraud or misuse, prevent duplicate voting, and protect the privacy of voters and their selections.

The Elections Committee must implement a procedure to ensure that any member's voting selections are counted only once, given that a member can vote in more than one way.

Vote counts should be published on proposals; but not published regarding individual candidates for office.
