PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

First of all, a sincere thank you from the club to all volunteers who contributed their time and energy throughout the year. And a special thanks to Mary Kaye Hrivnak, Madeline Metcalf, and Bill Johnston for organizing a successful Volunteer Party on September 30.

The Ski Club can always use more volunteers. In addition to the traditional volunteer activities, like organizing and leading events, we also need volunteers to help with things like social media and web editing. If you enjoy Ski Club events, please consider volunteering so we can continue to reach others who could have fun with us. Don't know how to start? Send me an email at chris.klocek@gmail.com

There are still spaces available for western ski trips, but they are going fast. Don't wait too long to register online at www.scwdc.org.

Closer to home, SCWDC will be participating in the Blue Ridge Ski Council WinterFest trip to Stowe, Vermont, March 4-9, 2018, and we will have a flight trip to Sunday River, Maine, February 4-9, 2018. Join us for some classic New England skiing this winter.

Other Eastern ski trip details are being finalized now and registration will be available online soon. We will have day trips to Liberty on January 14 and 21, and on February 4 and 18. We'll be at Canaan Valley January 11-14 and at Snowshoe January 26-28 and February 23-25. Look for lower prices this year on trips offering ski and snowboard lessons.

SCWDC is hosting the Warren Miller film on November 12 at the Naval Heritage Center (701 Pennsylvania Ave. NW). Thanks to Ken Eng for producing this event. It takes a lot of effort, but ski season wouldn't be the same without Warren Miller. Get your tickets (<http://www.scwdc-wme2017.eventbrite.com>) and get ready for the ski season.

Welcome to our three new Board members: Cindy Wallace, Gina Dolin, and Foster Stolte. They are replacing Susan Jacobson, Megan O'Connor, and David Toms. Susan and Megan are stepping down to take care of health and family. David will be embarking on an extended sailing trip. I very much appreciate their help and their service as members of the Board. Cindy, Gina, and Foster have been involved in a variety of Ski Club activities including skiing, sailing, and tennis. They will bring valuable perspectives on how we can continue to deliver great events for our members.

The Ski Club's indoor tennis season has started. Come out to play doubles at Fairfax Racquet Club. The complete schedule is online at www.scwdc.org, and listed under Tennis in this magazine.

As I write this in mid-October, we're having an unusual warm spell, but winter will be here soon enough. Make plans now to ski, snowboard, and play tennis with us this winter. As Warren Miller always reminds us, "If you don't do it this year, you will just be a year older when you do."

EASTERN SKIING

Here is the 2018 selection of SCWDC East Coast ski trips, which give you the opportunity for a weekend to polish your skills nearby or at several locations further to the north. For new skiers, some of these outings are designed to help you improve your capabilities, namely Ski Performance Enhancement (SPE) trips which include instruction by the club's own certified ski instructors. You can enhance your skills at every level and open your options for other more adventurous ski trails. With a colder, snowier, season predicted this winter, these trips could be just the vacation you're looking for.

SCWDC's Annual Washington, DC Movie Premier of Warren Miller Entertainment's latest ski adventure film, and Ski & Snowboard Expo

- Where: US Navy Memorial, Naval Heritage Center, 701 Pennsylvania Ave NW, Washington, DC 20004
- When: Sunday, November 12, 2017, 12 noon, 3 p.m., and 6 p.m. screenings
- Tickets: Purchase tickets online at <https://scwdc-wme2017.eventbrite.com>
- More Info: Contact Kenneth Eng at captain.ken@email4u.com

Warren Miller and the Ski Club of Washington, DC (SCWDC) present the Washington, DC Premier of Line of Descent.

The lineage of mountain lifestyle continues in Warren Miller Entertainment's (WME) 68th full-length feature film, Line of Descent. In this year's film, WME travels the globe, by land, air, and sea, exploring the ties that bind us.

Visit skiing icons who have made the mountains their home and raised the next generation of winter adventurers. Go from New Zealand, home to some of the Southern Hemisphere's deepest lines, to the French Alps, where native son Jean Claude Killy's legacy fills Val-D'Isere hearts with pride. In Norway, a Canadian ski patroller enjoys the company of his Norwegian brethren, and in British Columbia, the Provo brothers discover the pow surfing stashes of Mustang Powder Lodge. Cruise through the Northern Rockies with Kalen Thorien by motorcycle and rip the rugged terrain of Jackson Hole with legends like Tommy Moe and Jess McMillan.

For 68 years, ski families have cheered the official kickoff of winter with the ski film company that started it all. This year is no different. The family grows, and the traditions grow richer, in Warren Miller's Line of Descent. Bigger, deeper, fresher than ever.

Tickets are $12 each. Discounted 4-packs and 6-packs of tickets are also available, so bring your family and friends and save! Show times on Sunday, November 12 are 12 p.m., 3 p.m., and 6 p.m. at the US Navy Memorial – Naval Heritage Center, 701 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC.

Continue (or start) a great fall tradition! Join fellow snow sports lovers, snow enthusiasts, and adrenaline seekers in the greater DC Metro area for an exclusive screening of this movie that captures breathtaking skiing and panoramic splendor.

Watch the movie on a ginormous 46'x16' High Definition screen with state-of-the-art 7.1 digital surround sound (largest High Definition screen in the DC region) in an intimate 250-seat movie theater, from a plush, tilt-back seat with unobstructed view, in stadium-style seating. With goodies for every ticket holder and prize drawings at every screening, it is the perfect excuse to get together with your skiing and riding buddies to get stoked for the season ahead. Enjoy the free mini Ski and Snowboard Expo before or after the movie for winter sports, travel, sportswear, and equipment exhibits.

Before or after the movie, take in the vibrant nightlife, restaurants, and museums in the bustling Penn Quarter Entertainment District. Beverages and snacks are available for purchase at the theater. The theater is conveniently located just steps from the Archives-Navy Memorial-Penn Quarter Metro Station. Or take advantage of the no meter fee for on-street parking on Sundays.

TEAM SPORTS

Monday Night Volleyball

Dates and Time: Monday evenings, 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. (Sept. thru May) in upper Georgetown. Sponsored (for decades) by Ski Club of Washington D.C.

JUNE, JULY, AUGUST — outdoor sand-court volleyball Monday evenings at the courts between the Lincoln Memorial and the Kennedy Center, 6 p.m. until sunset. Free.

Location: Jelleff's Community Center, 3265 "S" Street NW, just off Wisconsin Ave. Free parking in the lot, although right at 7:00 p.m. the lot tends to be filled with parents picking up their kids. Usually there are plenty of spaces by 7:15 p.m. Alternative parking: there are always spaces on "S" Street, just avoid the metered areas. Very safe neighborhood. To enter the gym, look for the green awning with the name JELLEFF on it.

Leaders: John Henrehan, j.henrehan@gmail.com
Ira Silvergleit, irates@verizon.net

Cost: $5 for Ski Club members; $8 for non-members.

GOOD, COED, PICK-UP VOLLEYBALL — Players are invited to our Monday evening, drop-in, coed volleyball. (We do NOT play on Monday federal holidays.)

Play on our A-level court is quite competitive. They play 5/1 volleyball with a floating setter and a three-person attack at the net.

Don't know what that means? Consider our intermediate court.

On the intermediate court, we play by the rules, and we all rotate through the setter's position. We try to take all three hits before returning the ball. Here are the key questions: Can you bump? Can you set? If your answers are "yes", come and play with us. Rusty players are always welcome! Really, we're pretty accepting on the "B" court.

Currently, we are not offering a beginner's-level court. But, if you organize a group of friends, we will offer free instruction on the basics of volleyball.

We have three courts, so waiting time between games is quite short. On many nights, play is continuous. JUST SHOW UP. You'll be in a game, typically, in less than ten minutes.

Optional beer and pizza afterward, currently at Froggy Bottom Pub, 2021 "K" Street, NW. That's in downtown D.C., near the corner of K St. and 21st St., NW

Friday Night Bowling

Date and Time: Friday nights 7:30 p.m.

Leader: Pete, pcampbell@scwdc.org, /703-532-7776

Location: Bowl America in Falls Church

Each week we will send out an email to see who is interested in bowling that Friday and we will reserve the necessary lanes to accommodate. This of course will be dependent on lanes available. That's right, you will not need to commit to bowl every Friday; only those Fridays you want to. Emails will be sent out to all those who are interested in keeping up-to-date on what is going on and when this will start. Email Pete to get onto the list.

Indoor Tennis Parties (Best Deal in Town)

Ski Club Indoor Tennis parties are held almost every Saturday night from October through April. Tennis parties provide competitive social doubles and mixed doubles, where players enjoy good tennis, mingle, and enjoy a light buffet and beverages.

Who is eligible to attend?

Parties are for adults over 21 years of age who are experienced intermediate players (NTRP 2.5 to 4.5 or higher). If you are not sure of your numerical rating, please review the USTA's National Tennis Rating Program (NTRP) guidelines National Tennis Rating Program (to discuss your level, contact Jack Tarr (jtarr5@verizon.net). Attendance is typically a mix of active singles and couples from their late 20's to 60's. Parties average 64 players each week. but some have up to 80 in attendance. Male/female split is close to 50/50 at each party. Newcomers and non-SCWDC members are welcome. Non-players are also welcome, just pay $10 at the door and you can eat, drink, and socialize.

Where & when are the parties held?

Most tennis parties are held at Fairfax Racquet Club in Virginia. Three parties will be held at Georgetown Prep Tennis Club in Maryland this season. Check-in begins at 6:15 p.m., and scheduled tennis play is from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. Please allow for traffic delays to ensure arrival on time. If you arrive after 7:30 p.m. you may be replaced by a standby, and will forfeit the entire party cost. You can register for each party in advance, and pay online. SCWDC members pay $20, non-members pay $25.

Date: July 7-15, 2018 (or 19th w/Extension)

Leader: Frank Peñaranda

Price: $2,730 Top Deck; $2,480 Main Deck; Add $400 for Dublin Extension

The "Heart of Europe" is a good description of the destination for our next Bike & Barge adventure. The region formerly known as "Bohemia" evokes exotic culture, customs, and history; not just for its resplendent cities, but also for its villages and country-side. Our starting and ending point is the city of Prague, one of the few large cities whose buildings, monuments, and culture were spared from the devastation that WWII brought to the rest of civilized Europe. We will have ample opportunity to visit this major capital of Eastern Europe, but also the villages and hamlets that dot the course of the two principal rivers in our journey: the Vltava (also known as the Moldova or Die Moldau in German) and the Elbe; all close and personal on bikes or on foot.

This promises to be one of the most rewarding trips we have offered, and will fill-up very quickly, so if you are even remotely interested, please contact the trip leader immediately to reserve a spot.
