Resort:

Big Sky Resort is known for access to more skiing than anywhere else in the United States. Located about fifty miles south of Bozeman, Big Sky offers over 5,750 acres of skiable terrain, and over 4,350 vertical drop.

The resort offers some of the best expert and advanced terrain around while including an extensive network of trails suited for the intermediate and beginner skier or snowboarder. The resort is the base camp to Yellowstone National Park and provides daily shuttles to Yellowstone's west entrance. Big Sky has everything one would expect from a modern ski resort including a variety of dining, lodging, and shopping possibilities.
